2 Create test environment

Code:

If you are creating a study, please save this code.
To resume a study, enter the code you stored.

Javascript is not enabled. Please turn it on to go on.

This will only be shown if Javascript is not enabled - so hardly ever.

Start

This step is optional.

Normally the Test Administrator should have batch created enough Test environments for the users he invites. If there are environments left, this step is skipped.

Your study is being started, please wait...

Start

This step is optional.

Maybe the starting of a Study can be very much sped up, so we won't need this.
